

Late Payment Reminder Email Templates

How to use: Send Email 1 the day the invoice becomes overdue, Email 2 around 7-10 days overdue if unpaid, and Email 3 (final notice) around 20-30 days overdue if still unpaid. Replace every [bracket] with specifics, and adjust the day counts to match your own contract's terms.

Email 1 — Polite reminder (day of / day after due date)

Subject: Quick nudge — Invoice [#INV-0001] due [Date]

Hi [Name],

Hope you're well! Just a quick note that Invoice [#INV-0001] for $[Amount] was due on [Date] and I don't see payment come through yet — this happens, so just flagging it in case it slipped by.

You can pay via [payment method/link]. Let me know if you need me to resend the invoice or if anything's holding it up.

Thanks, [Your Name]

Email 2 — Firm follow-up (~7-10 days overdue)

Subject: Following up — Invoice [#INV-0001], now [X] days overdue

Hi [Name],

Following up on Invoice [#INV-0001] for $[Amount], which is now [X] days past its [Date] due date. Per our agreement, a late fee of [1.5–2%] applies to balances unpaid after [15/30] days — as of today that brings the total to $[Amount + fee, if applicable].

Could you let me know a specific date I can expect payment by? Happy to jump on a quick call if anything about the invoice is in question.

Thanks, [Your Name]

Email 3 — Final notice (~20-30 days overdue)

Subject: Final notice — Invoice [#INV-0001] past due, action required

Hi [Name],

This is a final notice regarding Invoice [#INV-0001], now [X] days overdue. The total outstanding, including the late fee specified in our agreement, is $[Amount].

Per Section [#] of our Service Agreement, I'll need to pause further work on [project/retainer] until this balance is settled. If payment isn't received by [firm date, e.g., 7 days out], I'll move this to [collections / a formal demand letter / next appropriate step].

I'd much rather resolve this directly — please reach out if there's a reason for the delay I should know about, or send payment via [payment method/link] by the date above.

Tracking

Invoice #	Amount	Due date	Email 1 sent	Email 2 sent	Email 3 sent	Paid
[INV-0001]	[$[Amount]]	[Date]	[]	[]	[]	[]

Escalation path if Email 3 goes unanswered: refer to the late payment and work-pause clauses in your Service Agreement; for larger balances, consider a formal demand letter or a collections service before pursuing legal action.
